To Our Valued Customers

Regarding: Price Increase June 1st, 2016

Studco Building Systems US LLC strives to deliver value to the industry through providing quality construction products and services. Rising Steel costs in the last 90 days can no longer be absorbed and we are going to have to raise our price up to 15% on June 1st, 2016.

Studco Building Systems US LLC will continue to honor all existing quotations that have been signed in accordance with our current project quoting policy. We encourage customers to take inventory of current quotes and projects in view of securing these projects at quoted pricing.

Please contact your sales representative if you have any questions regarding this increase.

Studco Building Systems US LLC takes this opportunity to thank you for your continued loyalty and support in this volatile market.

Sincerely,

STUDCO BUILDING SYSTEMS US LLC
